

— FROM K-STATE TO —

Greece

AGRICULTURE

ABOUT

Spend your spring break in Northern Greece, learning about traditional, local, and innovative approaches that are shaping Greek agriculture! Examples include precision agriculture technologies, organic and regenerative crop production, olive cultivation and oil production, vineyards and wineries, beekeeping and honey production, etc. Throughout the course, students will see how geography, climate, history, culture, and economics shape agricultural production around the world!

COURSES OFFERED

AGRON 302/505 - INTERNATIONAL STUDY TOUR

AGRON 902 - INTERNATIONAL AGRONOMY EXPERIENCE

HIGHLIGHTS

ENGAGE WITH WOMEN'S AG CO-OP

MEET STUDENTS FROM PERROTIS COLLEGE

CITY TOURS

VISIT LEADING GREEK AGRICULTURAL RESEARCH ORGANIZATION

GREEK COOKING
CLASS

DATES

Important Dates:

Course Dates: 1/19/2027 - 4/16/2027

On-Campus Meetings: Yes, students take
AGRON 504 concurrently to prep for travel

Tour Dates: 3/12/2027 - 3/20/2027

Application Deadline: October 1, 2026

Scan Me!

CONTACTS

Education Abroad
353 Hale Library
overseas@ksu.edu

Sydney Fetkenhauer
Education Abroad Advisor
sfetkenhauer@ksu.edu

Anita Dille
Professor of Agronomy
dieleman@ksu.edu

Sarah Frye
Instructor/Academic Coordinator, sezerger@ksu.edu

FOLLOW US

Instagram
@KStateAbroad

Facebook
@KStateAbroad